General Comments:

City staff presented background information on the Shape the Future 2025 project and explained project details including the timeline and public outreach efforts.

Rent Control Board comments focused on the Board's role in the process and the importance of affordable housing in the City. The Board discussed options to gather public input on housing issues including, sending Board representatives to future community forums and workshops as well as to Housing Commission meetings.

Board members Kennedy and Koury volunteered to attend the January 22nd Shape the Future 2025 community workshop at John Adams Middle School.
